HOPE LUTHERAN CHURCH IN CRANBERRY HOSTING LIVE NATIVITY ON DEC. 19

December 12, 2008: Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church of Cranberry will sponsor a live nativity from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 19, at the church on Rowan Road. The event is open to the public and will feature free camel rides.

Hope has sponsored the live nativity for many years as a way of sharing the Christmas season with its Cranberry Township community neighbors. Senior Pastor Ronald Brown said offering the event for the community is a special opportunity for Hope.

“This is a wonderful time of year to bring the family out and celebrate the true meaning of Christmas through the reenactment of the nativity,” he said. “We hope our neighbors in the community take time out of the holiday rush and visit with us.”

Pastor Brown also noted that the church would be offering refreshments inside the church during the nativity’s operating hours.

Hope Lutheran Church is located at 8070 Rowan Road, just off Route 19, in Cranberry Township. The church office may be reached at 724-776-3141; the website is www.hopelutherancranberry.org. Hope offers three regular weekly services: Saturdays at 5 p.m. (Casual Worship); Sundays at 9 a.m. (Family Service); and Sundays at 11 a.m. (Traditional Worship).
